Survey on adulteration of food Stuff Stuff

@1093. SHRI MUKHTIAR SINGH MALIK:
SHRIMATI RENUKA CHOWDHURY:

Will the Minister of HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a) whether according to the recent survey conducted by the Consumers Guidance Society of India, adulteration of food stuff including tea, groundnut oil mirchi powder etc. is being done on a large scale in the country; and

(b) if so, what steps Goverment have taken or propose to take to punish the traders resorting to adulteration of food stuff.

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (KUMARI SAROJ KHAPARDE): (a) and (b) Government is not aware of any such survey. The available information does not indicate any increase in the extent of adulteration of food stuffs in the country. The State/Union Territory Governments have been advised to strengthen the Prevention of Food Adulteration Enforcement machinery for better implementation of the provisions of the Prevention of Food Adulteration Act, 1954. The persons found guilty of manufacturing/storing or selling adulterated food stuffs for human consumption are punished by courts under the law.
